Supported Decision-Making Agreement
Adapted from the ACLU Disability Rights Program Supported Decision-Making Agreement

This agreement must be read out loud or otherwise communicated to all parties to the agreement in the presence of either a notary or two witnesses. The form of communication shall be appropriate to the needs and preferences of the person with a disability.

My name is: ____________________________________________________________

I want to have people I trust help me make decisions. The people who will help me are called supporters. I know that I can rely on my supporters to offer information and discuss options and choices with me.

I make decisions about my life, with support.

This agreement can be changed at any time. I can change it by crossing out words and writing my initials next to the changes. Or I can change it by writing new information on another piece of paper, signing that paper, and attaching it to this agreement.

These are my supporters:

(Write how often your whole team will meet, like “every week” or “every two months” or “before every IPP meeting”)

☐ I do not want my support team to meet on a regular basis.

Special directions and other information

I can write any other information or special directions here. I can also write more information on a separate piece of paper and attach it to this agreement. For instance, I may communicate here through the use of a visual system or format unique to me.

This supported decision-making agreement starts right now and will continue until the agreement is stopped by me or my supporters.
